Grocery Satisfaction.

If your grocer pleases you in every particular, you have no cause for changing.

Even WE can do no more than that.

But if you think some of making a shift, we would be glad to give you the best service of which we are capable.

Often and often we have turned now-and-again customers into steady patrons.

And we lose a surpising few of the really particular grocery buyers, who once become our customers.

Try us on anything you like.

SUPERVISORS FACE CRISIS

The Saloon Must Go and Woe to the Man that Bars the Way

The proposed anti-saloon ordinance now before the county supervisors of this county is the same as the Mendocino county ordinance. If passed it would close every saloon in the county, outside of incorporated towns and cities, upon the petition of 25 per cent of the voters. A counter petition of 25 per cent of the voters presented by the saloon people would at once secure a referendum; and, by ballot, the people of the whole county would decide absolutely without appeal, for four years, the question shall the rural districts be cursed with saloons and road-house or not.

Unless the supervisors first pass this ordinance any election or county vote on the question would be illegal and of no binding effect, even if the saloons were voted down ten to one. Unless the supervisors pass the ordinance the people will be denied the privilege and the right of deciding the question at an election. The state law provides no method whereby the people of a county can compel their supervisors to wipe out saloons. It is therefore demanded of the supervisors now that they give back to the people of Santa Clara county the power to settle this all-important question for themselves.

If the present supervisors fear the saloonkeepers, or are more susceptible to boodle than to the appeals of the fathers and mothers, the farmers and business men, who are their constituents, they will refuse to pass this ordinance, and their constituents will look elsewhere for candidates for another board of supervisors.

It is not merely a question of backbone; it is a question of common sense that now faces our five supervisors. The saloon has got to go, and woe to the man that bars the way. The temperance people ask the supervisors to pass back a great responsibility to the electorate where it belongs in any case. The saloon people ask the supervisors to sit tight and hold to the responsibility of maintaining crossroads grogshops, with their attendant evils, and to refuse the electorate a chance to decide the question. A minority of saloonmen want the supervisors to shield them from the majority of angry voters.

If the supervisors choose to hold to vital authority in this matter when the people ask it back, the supervisors commit political suicide. They must face the prospect of passing down, despised and shunned, through a generation, increasing every year, which demands that the saloon shall go. Our present board of supervisors have been known as honorable men and are likely to have discretion enough to stand aside and give the people the power, who now have the right, to decide this question.

Temperance people need to unite and prepare to fight this issue at the polls at every election hereafter until this county is clean. San Jose will follow the example of the rural districts within five years. The county seat will then have some chance to rival Pasadena and Riverside as a place to live. At present San Jose reeks with the odor of stale beer. People live there now in spite of unwholesome and uncleanly conditions. San Jose might become one of the great residence centers of the world if the place could be aired and cleaned; but a dozen rose carnivals a year will not sweeten the smell of San Jose while the saloons last.

Every man in Palo Alto who knows a supervisor should see him or write him at once and assure him of support if he does the right thing in the present crisis, the first crisis of a long struggle for purity and sobriety in this county.—Palo Alto Citizen.

A Bad Fall

While painting the Tutt house at Hamilton and Hicks avenues Tuesday Chas. Sutter and his assistant both received quite a fall when the scaffold or ladder on which they were working gave away. Mr. Sutter's back was injured and the other man receive a sprained ankle.

Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Campbell Fruit Growers' Union, a corporation, will be held at its place of business in Campbell, California, Wednesday, May 11, 1910, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the following purposes:

First: To receive the report of the officers.

Second: To elect a Board of Directors.

Third: To make such changes or amendments to the By-Laws as may be deemed wise.

Fourth: To transact any and all other business that may properly come before that meeting.

S. R. WADE, President.

S. G. RODECK, Secretary.

Campbell, Cal., April 22, 1910.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The students will give an entertainment consisting of musical and literary numbers at the school hall on the evening of Friday, the 29th of April. The money is to go for the support of student activities. It is hoped to have a sale of candy at the door after the program.

On the 20th of May this high school will debate with Palo Alto High School on the question: "Resolved that the United States should establish Postal Savings Banks." One team will take the affirmative of the question and meet Palo Alto here, who will take the negative. The other team will take the negative of the question and meet Palo Alto, who take the affirmative, at Palo Alto on the same evening, May 20. This debate is one of a series under the Santa Clara Valley Debating League. A fuller account of this organization will appear in the Press before the debate.

The baseball team plays the last game of its A. A. L. schedule next Saturday at Redwood City.

The Juniors are practicing on the annual farce, which will be produced in the latter part of May.

Improvement Club

A regular meeting of the Improvement Club was held last Monday evening, with President Sawyer in the chair. L. C Dick was elected permanent secretary of the organization. The condition of the park was discussed and it was learned that the Club was indebtedness to the amount of $7.00 for the last trimming of the hedge, etc. Mr. Chas. Berry was appointed to provide the money to meet this indebtedness and also money to put the park in good condition at the present time. As the S. P. Co. furnishes the water to keep things green and pretty, surely the people of Campbell appreciate this little beauty spot enough to see that it is properly taken care of. If we don't care for it no doubt the railway company can use the land to pile ties on.

Blest be the Tie that Binds

"Robert Lane of Los Gatos, who was haled into Justice Wallace's Court early in the month on a charge of disturbing the peace preferred by his wife, who lives at Campbell, and whose trial has been continued from time to time since then, was again complained against yesterday, when Mrs. Lane telephoned the Court and asked that he be taken into custody. She charges him with repeating the offense."—Mercury.

This is the couple who had the honor of being the subjects in the first case before Judge Farley's court, last January.

UNION DISTRICT

A very delightful evening was spent April 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mansfield when they entertained the young people in honor of their daughter Grace's fifteenth birthday. At guessing the baby pictures Hazel Downing won the prize and Roy Main won the prize for being the sweetest and cutest baby. Wyman Heywood won the prize at "guessing eyes." Many games and music were enjoyed after which ice-cream and cake were served and at a late hour good nights were said wishing Miss Grace many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. La Montagne were host and hostess at the Euchre Club on Saturday evening. Nine tables were seated at which J. J. Fretwell and Miss Hazel Downing won the first prizes while Harold Stanfield and Miss Florence Cilker were considered less fortunate.

Mrs. M. A. Young enjoyed several days' visit last week with relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs. George Bulmore and children of San Jose spent last week's end at the Bungalow.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clelland and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey of San Jose visited on Saturday and Sunday with relatives at the E. B. Scott home.

Mr. Andrew Anderson and daughter, Miss Anderson, of Idaho, who are touring this coast visited at the home of their cousin, Mrs. D. H. Webster the past week.

Quito Scott and Oscar, Carl and Herman Freschlag spent from Friday until Sunday fishing in the Bean and Deer creeks in Santa Cruz County.

New Class Organization

Mr. Trezone's Sunday school class, of the Methodist church, met at the home of Matilda Hayes last Saturday evening and formed an organization for the purpose of promoting attendance and interest in Sunday school work. Officers were elected as follows: president, L. C. Dick; vice president, R. Alison; secretary, Matilda Hayes; treasurer, Miss Woodward. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and recommend a name and class pin. Considerable interest is being shown in the movement and much good work is expected.

Local and Personal

James Relfe of Sunnyvale was in town last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rubell are enjoying a new auto.

Miss Beulah Crow is taking the school census for this district.

Rev. Marshman of Dos Palos has been visiting in Campbell this week.

Prof. C. F. Rubell came home from Loneoak last night for a short visit.

Mr. Robson entertained a company of ladies at her home on First street Tuesday afternoon.

A cottage belonging to C. B. Miracle has this week been moved from Foote to Central avenue.

Mrs. W. J. Bigger of East San Jose visited with her brother, Mr. Palmer, and family Tuesday.

Jesse Hayes spent Sunday with his folks here. He was accompanied by Kurt Fritch of Palo Alto.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Brown on South Second Street Wednesday, April 27th at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox of Hollister are guests of Professor and Mrs. Rubell today. They came up in an auto.

Mr. Fickett, of San Francisco, has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Baird, and family the past week.

The Countryman's Club met Tuesday evening. Prof. Janes read a paper and led the discussion on "Educational Delusions."

Complaint has been made because of the dirty and neglected condition of the horse drinking trough in front of the old hall building.

Mr. M. H. Bell, of Portsmouth, N. H., who is coming to San Francisco on a business trip, is expected soon to visit with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Berry and family.

The Post Office Department requests that patrons of the rural delivery system paint their boxes and posts white and also place their names and numbers on the boxes.

Mrs. Chas. Gilman entertained the following ladies at her home on Wednesday afternoon: Mesdames Hertz, Walton, Wells, Cook, Volman, Palmer and Miss Palmer.

Mrs. Kay and Miss Mary Clark went to Oakland this week as delegates from the Methodist Sunday school to the State Sunday School Convention in session there April 19-21.

Campbell has a good delegation at the Oakland G. A. R. Encampment this week, there being Mr. and Mrs. Coates, I. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. I. Zion, M. L. Waite, Mr. Savage and Dr. and Mrs. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Maxson, of Minneapolis, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. I Preston for several days left Wednesday with Mr. Preston for Oakland. They will visit later at Spokane before returning east.

Don't fail to be present at the entertainment at the High School next Friday evening. The program will consist of some good musical numbers and the High School Orchestra will play. The admission is fifteen cents; benefit athletic fund.

It was prophesied that on last Monday, the fourth anniversary of the earthquake, we would have another and more terrible shake than the first one. A man can talk about what the weather is going to be and it will be received simply as a joke, but when he makes readings from the sun spots and predicts internal disturbances of the earth, he makes himself ridiculous before the general public and his sanity becomes a question.

NEWS OF WEEK FROM ALL THE COAST STATES

Occurrences Along the Pacific Slope Presented in Compendious Array.

Passing Events Among Your Neighbors Briefly Told in Short, Newsy Paragraphs.

Stockton.—The electric wires on Main street and Weber avenue, the principal business thoroughfares of the city, are to be placed underground.

Sacramento.—Fast motor boats on the Sacarmento river throw up such heavy swells that the constant washing against the levee is having bad effects in some places.

Sacramento.—The new city hall is finished and all the officials have moved into their quarters. This is the first city hall Sacramento has owned and it cost more than $180,000.

Vallejo.—Word was received in this city a few days ago that on March 31 at Cristobal, in the Isthmian canal zone, Sam Barnes, master-at-arms on the cruiser Tacoma, fell overboard and was devoured by a shark.

Grass Valley.—W. B. Bourn will give the city of Grass Valley a park. Several women appealed to him recently and he has made good the pledges he gave them. Bourn is the principal owner in the Empire mine and has made his fortune here.

Willows.—The election on the question of annexation of 800 acres additional to this city was carried by six votes. Willows will, under the new corporate limits, cover 1000 acres. The population will reach 3000, while it has for years been recorded as 800.

Santa Cruz.—The result of the election in Boulder Creek puts the "wets" in office, after two years of prohibition. City Atorney L. C. Rittenhouse says the election means that only hotels and restaurants will be allowed to sell liquor and that no saloons will be opened.

Seattle.—The first estimate of the spring gold cleanup in the neighborhood of Fairbanks, Alaska, is $9,000,000. The gold will be shipped to the Seattle assay office by way of Yukon steamers. There are no estimates of the Iditarod output, but all late news from the new camp is favorable.

Sacramento.—Sheriff McAulay of Placer county received a check for $500 from the allied merchants of this city as reward for his capture and conviction of George Anderson, an incendiary who robbed and fired the furniture store of C. M. Campbell in this city last December. Anderson was sent to prison for 15 years.

San Francisco.—That landlords are under no legal obligation to erect safety barriers around platforms, from which clothes lines are hung, was decided by Judge Hunt in throwing out of court the suit for $10,000 damages instituted by Marion Benjamin against her landlord. Mrs. Benjamin fell off the platform and sustained serious injuries.

Bellingham, Wash.—The output of Puget Sound salmon fisheries for the year ending March 31, 1910, was valued at $13,534,010.10, according to the annual report of State Fish Commissioner Riseland, just issued. Capital employed aggregated $4,800,000, and 13,000 persons were employed in the industry and earned $4,000,000. The State fish hatcheries turned out 72,000,000 salmon fry.

Stockton.—Former Constable Steadman of Knights Ferry was killed in one of the most peculiar accidents brought to the attention of a coroner in a long time. He was driving toward his home when an automobile frightened his horse at the junction of the Hodson and Knights Ferry roads. The animal ran down hill to a bridge and the buggy collided with the structure. Steadman was thrown out and instantly killed.

San Francisco.—Quang Sing, a Chinese, proprietor of the Belvedere restaurant, Clay and Powell streets, became infatuated with Gertie Evans, a young waitress from Los Angeles, and a few days ago proposed marriage. Gertie expressed her willingness, but suggested that he should give her $150 to buy her trousseau. He gave her the money and a few days later she got $10 from him to obtain the marriage license. That was the last he saw of Gertie. The police have been asked to arrest her.

LOSES LIBEL SUIT AGAINST EDITOR WHO EXPOSED HIM

Itinerant Lecturer, Who Preyed on Temperance People, Meets Waterloo.

Martinez.—The power of the country press was exemplified here last week when, after hearing testimony of a sensational and unprintable nature, which practically ruined the reputation of J. L. Himrod, a temperance lecturer, Justice of the Peace C. H. Hayden dismissed the charge of criminal libel which Himrod had instituted against Harry T. Hammond, editor of the Byron Times.

The action was dismissed on motion of District Attorney Alvarado, seconded by Special Prosecutor ex-Judge J. L. Frick of Oakland.

The suit was the result of an expose of Himrod's character in the columns of the Byron Times some months ago. At that time Himrod was holding prohibition meetings at Byron, Brentwood and other towns in the eastern portion of Contra Costa county.

Among the most important witnesses for the defense at the trial were Captain of Detectives Bradish of Los Angeles; E. F. Dishman, assistant postmaster, and formerly Chief of Police of Los Angeles; Detective Blair of Blair's Detective Agency; Editor Wiley J. Phillips of the California Voice and James H. Woertendyke, chairman of the State Prohibition Committee, and Frank Wheeler, Deputy Assessor of Los Angeles county.

They testified that Himrod had been arrested in Los Angeles; that he had not denied the commission of an infamous crime, but that there was no statutory law dealing with his revolting offense and he was released.

The evidence was the most sensational ever introduced into an American court of justice, and the most revolting.

The testimony against Himrod was of such a nature that women were excluded from the court room.

In his expose of Himrod, Editor Hammond maintained he had no fight whatever against the advocates of temperance, but that Himrod was an immoral hypocrite and a disgrace to the cause he claimed to represent.

Hammond published letters from noted prohibitionists in which Himrod was denounced for his escapades.

Editor Hammond was ably represented by ex-Speaker of the Assembly Robert L. Beardslee, M. R. Jones, the eminent lawyer of Martinez, and Archie Campbell of San Francisco.

The people of Byron celebrated the acquittal of the Times editor with a band of music and a general jollification.

Pedesterian Broke His Fall.

Portland, Or.—Falling from a third story window of the Uncle Sam lodging house, H. A. Kunstat, a machinist, was saved from probable death by landing on a pedestrian. Kunstat fell head foremost toward the concrete sidewalk, striking B. R. Hutchings, who was passing. Hutchings was knocked down, but escaped uninjured. Kunstat's head struck the sidewalk, but he was not seriously hurt.

Not Drugstore Bandit.

San Jose.—Charles Chiften, the man who confessed to the killing of Night Watchman George W. Whybark of Santa Clara several weeks ago, was held to answer before the superior court for the crime by Justice of the Peace Thomason of Santa Clara. The theory that Chiften was responsible for the so-called drug-store hold-ups in San Francisco has been abandoned by the officers.

Many Cattle Die of Starvation.

Salt Lake City.—Scattered mile after mile over the ranges along the Humboldt river in northern Nevada are the carcasses of dead cattle that have perished from starvation in consequence of the destruction of grazing pastures by the flood waters of months past. Some of the estimates made by stockmen place the losses of live stock at 75 per cent.

Taft to Dine With Workmen.

Washington.—President Taft will dine with the skilled workmen of the New York navy yard at Brooklyn on the evening of May 12. The men will celebrate the launching of the big battle-ship which they constructed at the yard with a banquet on the night the new Dreadnought is put over the ways.

Frost Nips Idaho Fruits.

Boise, Idaho.—The season's crop of small fruits in this section and in Fayette valley is reported to have been heavily damaged by recent frosts. In the large orchards, where smudge pots were kept burning, the loss is comparatively light.

Twins for Imprisoned Murderess.

Denver.—Twins were born in the Denver county jail to Mrs. Emma Jett, who is charged with the murder of her husband. She will be placed on trial for her life as soon as her condition will permit.

Robbery of Train Near Benicia Record for Boldness

Southern Pacific train No. 10, eastbound China and Japan mail, was held up by two men in the Suisun marshes at 11:30 Saturday night, and the mail car robbed of nine sacks of registered mail. The passengers were not disturbed.

After securing the sacks of registered mail the robbers escaped in the engine, which was later ditched at Tolenas, north of Suisun.

It is believed that the men took a boat at Jacksnipe, a hunting club station in the Suisun marshes, and rowed over to Martinez.

Suspicion is directed toward two men who had been in Martinez for a week. They are described as follows: No. 1—Height, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches; weight, 155 pounds; hatchet face, florid complexion, freckles on hands, light hair, refined appearance; speaks with a Southern drawl. No. 2—Height, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches; weight, 150 pounds; 24 years of age, blue eyes, smooth shaven, third tooth on upper left side gold.

Clews to the movements of the robbers were found in a boat at Martinez Sunday morning. The horse and buggy of a resident of Martinez were stolen Sunday morning.

The robbers left in the engine an overcoat, in the pocket of which was a map and memorandum, in a clumsy attempt to make the officers think they were going to Sacramento.

The Southern Pacific Company has posted a reward of $5000 for the capture of the men, and the Government has offered a reward of $1000.

Benicia.—Investigation revealed that the two bandits had boarded the train when it pulled out at 10:53 o'clock, and when the limited was speeding past the Goodyear ranch, west of the Goodyear station, the two crawled over the tanks and covered Engineer Marsh and Fireman Tast with their revolvers; they ordered them down from their seats.

While the smaller of the bandits covered the two, the second jumped at the throttle and pulled it closed. Not satisfied that the train was coming to a stop, he jerked on the emergency air brake which brought the train to a jar stop within a few yards.

The taller robber then commanded Engineer Marsh to lead the way to the express car, and when the latter replied that there was no express on the train, the bandit ordered him to show the way to the door of the United States mail car.

The thugs fired eight shots under the car when Mail Clerk James Black failed to answer, and the taller of the bandits, who acted as spokesman, declared that they would dynamite the car if the door was not opened. At this Black swung the door open, and the bandits then ordered him to throw out the pouches of registered mail.

Black threw three bags of third-class mail out, when one of the thugs, perceiving that they were not securing the registered mail, shouted: "None of that stuff; throw out the good bags. We want the registered mail."

Black then threw out six more bags, some of which were pouches of registered mail. After firing two more shots in the air, the bandits then ordered Engineer Marsh to throw the nine pouches into the cab and cut off the locomotive. The bandits then swung into the cab of the locomotive, and after cautioning the crew not to make any attempt to interfere, the taller of the two thrust the throttle wide open. The bandits ran the locomotive to a point near the drawbridge at Teal station, between Hoyt and Cygnus, some eight miles out of this city.

While the taller guided the engine, the second bandit sorted the pouches and threw four bags of third-class mail off into the ditch. These were later picked up by passing train crews. The bandits threw the remaining five bags into their red fishing boat lying in the Montezuma slough at the intersection of the railroad.

When they left the engine the throttle was partly open, and in forty minutes the steam pressure rose and the engine started off of its own accord. It sped for five miles and stopped short at Sprig station. In passing Cygnus station the runaway locomotive was signaled by the engineer of section one of train five, which had been switched at the station, and when no answer was returned the engineer immediately sent in an alarm to Suisun and to the local station.

The engine again gathered steam after a stop of about forty minutes at Sprig, and started out again at a clipping rate. It sped on to a point near Tolenas, where when nearly dead it crashed into two empty box cars on a siding.

Man's Shattered Jaw Replaced With That of a Calf

Los Angeles.—The smashed and broken jaw of John Schilheimer, ranchman near Long Beach, who was attacked by an enraged bull, was replaced at the county hospital by the jawbones of a calf. The operaion is one of the most remarkable in the history of surgery. It will undoubtedly prove successful. The patient is resting well and there are indications that the living cells from the calf's jaw are uniting with what remains of the man's lower jaw.

Schilheimer was terribly gored. The animal tore away one ear and crushed his lower jaw. Surgical aid proved futile to keep the crumbling jaw from rotting away, and gangrene was threatened until Dr. C. Deichmiller suggested using a calf's jaw to replace it. When the ranchman heard this he tried to cheer for joy. Failing, he used a pencil and volunteered to furnish the calf.

"It is the son of the bull which gored me," he wrote. It was slaughtered just prior to the operation so that the living bone cells will unite with the human's jaw.

Ministers Must Not Break Law By Preaching on Sunday

Topeka, Kan.—Does the preaching of a sermon on the Sabbath for pay, singing in a church choir for compensation, and the playing of the church organ for money on the Lord's day, constitute the breaking of Topeka's Sunday anti-labor law?

Mayor Billard says these things are just as much of an infringement of the ordinance as the working of actors and stage hands, who are now prohibited from following their vocations on Sunday. Mayor Billard also calls attention to the operation of street cars on the Sabbath and to open drug stores, cigar stores, peanut stands and soda fountains. The plain inference is that he expects to make Topeka the "tightest" blue-law town in Christendom unless the people repeal the present anti-labor law. Said the mayor: "The best way to get an obnoxious law repealed is to enforce it to the letter. That is what I intend to do with the Sunday anti-labor law."

Billard was elected mayor of Topeka on April 5th. The churchmen of the Kansas capital made a fight on him on the ground that he did not believe in God.

Lost Life's Savings in Fire That Destroyed Barn

American Fork, Utah.—While neighbors were gathered about his premises to view a fire that threatened speedily to consume his barn, John J. Jones made desperate efforts to force his way into the flames that he might rescue hidden treasure. As the blaze died down, Jones, finally subdued in his frenzy, astonished those about him by the intelligence that a roll of currency amounting to $5000, his savings of many years, had been lost in the fire. Unknown to his family Jones had concealed the money in an old stovepipe. About a month ago, when suddenly stricken with heart failure, he attempted to tell his wife and children of the fortune in store for them, but the shock of his illness had left him speechless. Recovering some days later, however, Jones decided to keep the secret for a future time, hoping meanwhile to add to his competence by his industry.

PRESIDENT TAFT, BASEBALL FAN, OPENS THE SEASON

Becomes Enthusiastic When Washington Wins From Philadelphia.

Washington.—The opening of the American league season in Washington between the local and Philadelphia clubs was a most auspicious one, President and Mrs. Taft, Vice-Presdent Sherman and many other notables being present. The locals won by the shutout route, 3 to 0.

Taft took an active part in the game. Just before play was started Umpire Billy Evans made his way to the Taft box and presented the President with a new ball. The President handed the ball to Mrs. Taft, who weighed it carefully in her hand while the President removed his kid gloves in preparation for his debut as a baseball pitcher. When the bell rang for the beginning of the game the umpire gave the signal and Taft raised his arm. Catcher Street stood at the home plate ready to receive the ball, but the President knew the pitcher was the man who usually began business operations with it, so he threw it straight to Pitcher Walter Johnson. The throw was a little low, but the pitcher stuck out his long arm and grabbed the ball before it hit the ground.

The ball was never actually in play, as it is to be retained as a souvenir of the occassion.

As the game progressed and Washington maintained the lead it took at the outset, the President became as enthusiastic as others and applauded the brilliant work of the young Washington pitcher He insisted on remaining until the last Philadelphia player had been retired.

Fight Promoters Insured.

San Francisco.—Rickard and Gleason, promoters of the "fight of the century," have received an insurance policy from Lloyd's in London, which guarantees indemnity against loss through death, sickness or injury to either Jeffries or Johnson up to $30,000. The promoters will have to spend so much money before the Fourth of July that they are fearful that some unforseen event happening to the principals in the big fight might make their outlay so much money wasted.

Women Aid White Slaves.

New York.—A league of women, which will watch white slavery developments throughout the country and aid in the suppression of the traffic, has been formed by New York club women. It is to be known as the National League for the Moral Protection of Women. The burden of the work will fall on the legislative committee, which will consider legislation offered at Washington and at the various State capitals, and will make such suggestions as seem wise.

Opposed to American Railway Men.

Monterey, Mexico.—War upon American railroad men in this republic has been resumed by native employes of the railroad companies. The natives declare they are discriminated against and that foreigners fill the more important positions, to the detriment and injury generally of the Mexican railroad workers. The native unions have appointed a committee of 60 to go to the City of Mexico and present their grievances to President Diaz.

Vanity Leads Women to Prison.

Chicago.—Vanity led six feminine prisoners before Judge Wells of the Harrison street municipal court to be punished for misdeeds one day last week, and revealed a veritable epidemic of shoplifting in Chicago. In each case the desire to possess raiment beyond her means, caused the young woman's downfall. They received sentences varying from two months to one year.

University Running Expenses.

Berkeley.—It will take just $1,500,000 to pay the running expenses of the University for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1910, according to the decision of the regents. This sum does not represent the total operating expenditures, but includes the permanent building fund of $200,000 and the cost of maintainence of the university farm at Davis.

Chinese Lottery Caused Downfall.

Oakland.—In ten years John E. Neal must pay back $4300 he embezzled from the Sunset Lumber Company. Judge Brown admitted him to probation for that term upon that condition, and with the additional one that in the meantime he shall refrain from gambling. Most of the stolen money, Neal confessed, went in playing Chinese lottery.

Limit Saloons in Glenn.

Willows.—The superviors of Glenn county have adopted a resolution limiting the number of saloons in the county to 19, the number at present permitted to do business.

WORLD'S NEWS PRESENTED IN BRIEF ITEMS

Events of Both Hemispheres Compiled in Pithy Form For Busy Readers.

Here You Will Find a Resume of Happenings in Almost Every Part of the Earth.

Paris.—Baroness de Rouques, mother of Mrs. Maybrick, who spent many years in a British prison under a life sentence, is dead. The Baroness died in poverty, it is said.

St. Louis.—The lid on euchre parties, boxing matches, kite-flying and fan-tan, ordered by former Chief of Police Creecy, was removed in the first official announcement of the new chief, William Young.

Tokio.—The recently adopted land-ownership law restricting the ownership of land in Japan to such foreigners as come from a country which extends similar privileges to Japanese residents, has been promulgated.

Paris.—A sensation was caused in the Palace of Justice a few days ago when an anarchist in revenge fired four shots at M. Flory, the president of the court which found the man guilty a year ago. Flory was not hit by the bullets and the anarchist was arrested.

Akron, O.—"The spirits kept bothering me," is the only explanation offered by Mrs. Rosa Marquardt, aged 20, who attacked and killed her two-year-old daughter Margaret, and probably fatally injured her one-year-old baby. Mrs. Marquardt beat the children with a hickory club.

Medford, Mass.—By a vote of its trustees Tufts College has ceased to be a co-educational institution. As soon as the new changes can be made in the charter of the institution, a new college, to be known as the Jackson College for Women will be established. The segregation of the sexes is the object.

Louisville., Ill — Robert Lewis, a farmer and stockman, died at his home near Bible Grove, ten miles east of here, after suffering a week with hiccoughs. Efforts of physicians were unavailing. He grew weaker and weaker until death came. In his suffering he cried: "I am dying one of the most horrible deaths imaginable!"

Denver, Colo.—"On May 20 I will be 104 years old," said William Taylor to the registration clerk for the approaching city election. Born in Scotland and a veteran of the Crimean, Mexican and Civil wars, Taylor is a disciple of Weston and a familiar figure to the daily colony of pedestrians on Capitol Hill. He does not require glasses to read the finest print.

Nashville, Tenn.—Colonel Duncan B. Cooper, convicted of killing Senator E. W. Carmack and sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment, was granted a full pardon by Governor Patterson just after the Tennessee supreme court had affirmed his sentence. Robin, son of Colonel Cooper, convicted with his father, was remanded for a new trial by the supreme court.

Berlin.—Important discoveries have been made by archaeologists of the Potsdam Museum in excavations near that city. The ruins of a prehistoric village estimated to belong to a period dating back to the year 1000 B. C., have been unearthed. The investigators have found rows of stones and fragments of urns supposed to mark the site of a prehistoric burial ground.

Cody, Wyo.—Cody has a grievance, and it is against Uncle Sam. The Government has forced pennies on Cody—a place that has no more use for pennies than Nome has for fans in January. It has instructed its postmaster here to make change in pennies, and the arrangement embarrasses business men. Nobody wants the penny, and invariably it drifts to the bank and there it sticks.

Washington.—Robt. I. Aitken of New York has finished the clay model of a bust of the President, which is said to be destined either for the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York or the Corcoran Art Gallery in this city. The sculptor worked on the President's bust while the latter received visitors and carried on the general executive work of the day. Mr. Aitken formerly lived in San Francisco.

St. Louis.—The life of a baseball player in St. Louis will be one long, sweet dream, if the enthusiasts observe the restrictions laid down for them by the officials of the local National League club. Hissing of players on either team, insulting remarks, or conduct in any way reflecting on the merits of a player will be punished by immediate ejectment from the park, runs the announcement.

Bad Breath

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles."—Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 7th St., New York, N. Y.

FLOUR FROM SAWDUST.

Another Step in the Conservation of Forest Resources.

Flour from sawdust? Well, it is not the kind which goes into the making of light, fluffy biscuits, nor yet into the other kinds which are not light, but it is an ingredient of dynamite, linoleum, xyolite, which, for the information of the man on the street, is a kind of artificial flooring and other things. It is another step in the movement for the conservation of forest resources and the United States consul at Christiania, Norway, has sent to this government a suggestion along this line which may be of value to American lumbermen who are wrestling with the problem of sawdust waste. It is not put forward as a new discovery, for it has been in use for several years in Europe and to a small extent in this country.

The wood flour is ground in a cheap mill very similar to those which grind corn and rye. Pine and spruce sawdust is used in Europe and after passing through the stones and the bolting chest it is sacked or baled for shipment. It is then worth $12 to $13 a ton.

The flour has a number of uses, one of which is in the making of dynamite. It is the absorbent for the nitroglycerine, which is the explosive ingredient. Wood flour dynamite is inferior to that made with infusorial earth as the absorbent, but it serves many purposes and is cheaper. But dynamite is one of the smallest prospective uses for the product. Linoleum makers mix it with linseed oil and give body to their floor covering. It is not considered quite equal to ground cork for this purpose, as it is less elastic, but it is cheaper and meets requirements for medium grades.

The flour fills an important place in the manufacture of xyolite, a kind of artificial flooring, resembling wood in weight and stone in other respects. It is used for kitchen floors and in halls, corridors, cafes, restaurants and public rooms. It is practically fireproof. It is floor material in some of the German war vessels. It is so used because it is not liable to take fire or splinter if struck by shells.

Many additional uses for wood flour will probably be found. The amount of sawdust to be had in this country is practically unlimited and millmen will welcome any plan that will lessen the waste at the sawdust dump. Norway exports thousands of tons of this sawdust flour yearly and the United States takes some of it.

Properly prepared peat gives from 40,000 to 80,000 cubic feet of producer gas per ton of dry matter, with a calorific value equal to that of coal gas.

If you don't use Port Costa Flour you have the sympathy of every woman who does.

To avoid the use of rubber tires on automobiles an English inventor has patented a wheel in which resiliency is furnished by a number of steel springs between outer and inner rims.

Strength at Various Ages.

According to excellent authority the muscles, in common with all organs of the human body, have their periods of development and decline, our physical strength increasing up to a certain age and then decreasing. Tests of the strength of several thousand individuals have been made and the following figures are given as the averages derived from such tests:

The lifting power of a youth of 17 is 280 pounds; in his twentieth year this increases to 320 pounds and in the thirtieth and thirty-first years it reaches its height, 365 pounds. At the expiration of the thirty-first year the strength begins to decline, very gradually at first. By the fortieth year it has decreased eight pounds and diminution continues at a slightly increasing rate until the fiftieth year is reached, when the figure is 330 pounds.

Subsequent to this period strength fails more and more rapidly until the weakness of old age is reached. It is found impossible to obtain trustworthy statistics of the decline of strength after the fiftieth year, as the rate varies greatly in different individuals.

QUEER VILLAGES.

Some Peculiar Ones That May Be Seen in England.

The English village is very dear to the hearts of poets and painters, and thousands of them are certainly charming. A few, however, are more amusing than anything else—as, for instance, one which consists entirely of old railway carriages, even the chapel being composed of four horse trucks. Another village, with a population of 1,100 and taxed at the valuation of $8,000, has neither school, church nor other public building, the only thing of the sort being a letter box on a pillar.

Villages with but a single inhabitant are not unknown, one of them being Skiddaw, in Cumberland. The single villager complains bitterly because he cannot vote, there being no overseer to prepare a voters' list and no church or other public building in which to publish one, as the law requires. The lonely rate payer in a Northumberland village has declined to contribute money to maintain the roads, remarking that the one he has is quite good enough for its use. In the Isle of Ely is a little parish with about a dozen inhabitants that has no rates, as there are no roads or public institutions of any kind and consequently no expenses.

Kempton, near Bedford, can probably lay successful claim to the distinction of being the longest village in the world, as it straggles along the road for a distance of seven miles.

Sometimes a village will entirely disappear, having been built either on the edge of the crumbling cliffs that make part of the coast line or over an ancient mine. One of the latter class is in Shropshire, and each year one or more of the cottages tumbles as the earth sinks beneath it.—Harper's Weekly.

Harem Cheaper than Wife.

A few months ago King Edward announced that the distinctive feature of an American woman was her back. He could tell at a glance from the rear whether a woman hailed from this country by the way in which she was gowned.

This is all right so far as it goes, but it is a very slight instance. There are a good many other distinctions which go to make up the American women, notably her general outlook on life, which is that man was made for her amusement and her support. Our men do not dispute the fact. They are never permitted to talk back, so they simply grub a little harder to pay the ever-increasing pile of bills which come in.

It is estimated that a man in Persia or Turkey can maintain a first-class harem on half the sum that a single American wife costs a man of equal standing with the oriental. We give this for what it is worth, not that it bears upon the matter in hand. Americans are immune from polygamy, even if there were no other factor than the cost.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Hampered by Conventionalities.

Washington was crossing the Delaware River at Trenton.

"Of course," he said, "I don't mind standing up in this frail boat and gazing sternly in the direction of the unsuspecting foe, since the artists insist on depicting me in this absurd attitude, but the blithering chumps ought to know better than to paint these blocks of floating ice projecting a foot above the water. Any man with an ounce of gumption knows that the ice in this river isn't eight feet thick!"

Angered by these reflections, he fell upon the Hessians shortly afterward with extreme ferocity.—Chicago Tribune.

A Sporting Chance.

"I'll teach you to play at pitch and toss!" shouted the enraged father. "I'll flog you for an hour, I will!"

"Father," instantly said the incorrigible, as he balanced a penny on his thumb and finger, "I'll toss you to make it two hours or nothing."—Cassell's Journal.

Where the Work Came In.

Mrs. Bacon—I understand your husband is at work on a new poem? Mrs. Egbert—He is. He's trying to get some magazine to accept it.—Yonkers Statesman.

Explained.

"What makes Bliggins so sure his infant is the smartest child on earth?"

"His firm belief," answered Miss Cayenne, "in the law of heredity."

EDITORIAL

How refreshing to see a little water on the streets this morning!

"An Insurgent is merely a man who wants to have a bill read before it is adopted, and who demands protection against hand-me-down legislation. An aroused public sentiment will no longer tolerate tariff laws written in the offices of the big corporations and big interests."—Senator J. P. Dolliver.

No political candidate in the coming campaign will receive more voluminous and vet desirable publicity than one F. W. Richardson who has consented to make the race for the nomination for state printer. Practically all of the better class of newspapers in California are boosting for him. He will not only be nominated but elected. —Palo Alto Citizen.

From the Hawkeye, Iowa, Beacon we note that "the receipts of hogs in the eleven principal markets of the middle west Jan. 1 to Mar. 31, 1910, were 5,420,000; same period 1909 7,493,000; same period 1908 9,191,000." Does this indicate that the farmers are going out of the hog-raising business, or does it mean that people are losing their appetite for pig meat?

THE IOWA HEN

The Santa Clara Valley is supposed to be quite a poultry and egg producing district; but here is one week's record from Hawkeye, Iowa, which is a town of about 650 people:

"The merchants of Hawkeye took in 325 cases of eggs last week, for which they paid nineteen cents per dozen, making a total of $1852 paid to the poultry raisers of this locality. Verily, the hen is an important factor in our prosperity."

Now the Iowans are not in the egg business, they are farmers, and the chickens run in large flocks about the barnyard and hide their nexts in the mangers and the haystacks. On inquiry we find that Campbell receives about 40 cases or less of eggs per week, including those purchased by the grocers and shipped from the S. P. depot.

WAR COMRADES

The forty-third encampment of the G. A. R. of Nevada and California is new in session at Oakland, April 19 to 23. The attendance at these gatherings gets smaller each year as our veteran fathers answer the final roll call and are mustered out of this life's service. There is no friendship more beautiful than that manifested between the men who were comrades through the years of the war and still cling to each other and the memories of the past. This is well illustrated in the friendship of Comrades I. Preston and P. C. Maxson, who each year visit one another either in Campbell or Minneapolis. These two men after three years of service were captured with their company of fifty and taken to Andersonville Prison where they remained for 367 days, until released.

We younger men fail to appreciate the opportunities that have come to us through the sacrifices and sufferings of the soldier boys of 1860-4, and how often on a Memorial Day do we pain the hearts of these good men by going picnicing and fishing or otherwise making merry during the hours when sacred services are being held in honor of the departed.

FILTHY SIDEWALKS

The Anti-spitting ordinances, laws and regulations in the cities and towns throughout the country, which in many cases have been ignored or overlooked, are being brought to the attention of the public and many arrests and convictions are being made.

While a resident of one of the Central States we learned, among other good things about San Jose that it had an anti-spitting ordinance, and woe unto the man that spat on the sidewalk. Several years later we became a resident of this model little "Garden City," but found that we had been misinformed in this regard. Having read of the cleanliness of the city and finding the opposite condition, its dirtiness was much more marked. Especially in front of the saloons and cigar stands where the loafing element waste their time, the sidewalks are an abominable mess of filthiness. The Collegiate Alumnae Association of San Jose has undertaken the work of arousing public sentiment along this line with the hope of having the ordinances enforced. During the year 1909 in 80 of the largest cities of the country 3,421 arrests were made for violation of the laws regarding spitting in public places. Over 2,900 convictions were secured and $4,100.87 was collected in fines.

FOR STATE PRINTER

"Friend W. Richardson, editor of the Berkeley Daily Gazette and president of the California Press Association, has found it impossible to escape the demand that he should run for Superintendent of State Printing, and has consented to become a candidate for the Republican nomination. The press of the state has made practically a unanimous demand upon him, and although he has repeatedly said that he did not want to run for governor, or any other office, still the pressure is so strong that he cannot decline. He has conducted a newspaper and job printing plant for many years and is thoroughly qualified to manage the state printing office. His Berkeley printing office is one of the model plants of the state and his attention to detail and executive force is shown in every department. Over one hundred editors throughout the state have requested him to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Superintendent of State Printing. Many citizens in different counties have joined in the request. The office is seeking him and he feels it his duty to accept the call. Bro. Richardson will have the support of the Mail in this contest."—Los Gatos Mail.

Mr. Richardson was present at the County editors' meeting at Gilroy on the 12th. He made such a good impression that he can count on the Press.

TUBERCULOSIS SUNDAY

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis has planned on a great scale a "National Tuberculosis Sunday" on April 24th. The movement has been endorsed by many prominent physicians and clergymen, and no doubt on that day more people will hear the gospel of health and right living than have ever before received such a message. In the old days a doctor's diagnosis, "Consumption," was regarded as a sentence of death, and the prevalence of tuberculosis was thought of in the light of some mysterious "visitation of God." Today we know that tuberculosis is curable, and, what promises even more for the human race, that it is preventable. Preventable diseases ought to be prevented. The world is cursed by ignorance and darkness. Through the Church it is to be blessed by knowledge and light. Tuberculosis is born of ignorance; it flourishes in the darkness. And if the light of the knowledge of the glory of God shines from the face of Jesus Christ into the Church, it must stream again from the Church into dark homes and into dark lives and the dark places of the city where physical and moral evils abound. Social problems are spiritual at heart. We worship God by serving man.

No body of men has better vantage ground for good work in the crusade against tuberculosis than clergymen. They are in close touch with the people who need education and what they say will be accepted as from authority. Such a cause as the stamping out of a plague must appeal to them as it exemplifies the quintessence of religion. Every minister in the land should become a teacher of the doctrine of health and preventing the need of medicine. He should, moreover, as a leader of men become a living active force in the world movement for stamping out consumption.

The Real Power

The Santa Clara County Editorial Association is well organized and in shape to do effective work. It is a power that will have to be reckoned with in the affairs of this county hereafter.—Mountain View Leader.

Twenty-one sane persons visited The Citizen office this week and paid yearly subscriptions in advance. Two others ordered their papers stopped; one of these is already on the way to the asylum and the other, when last seen, was trying to climb a slick eucalyptus tree in an effort to capture green-whiskered tadpoles.—Palo Alto Citizen.

How Boulder Creek Was Ruined

In regard to the financial success of a "dry town" government, these figures tell the story of Boulder Creek without saloons:

Amount of cash in treasury when present board took office, on May 1, 1908, $902.46.

Amount of cash on hand when the saloons were closed on October 1st., 1908, $317.14.

Amount of cash on hand in treasury, after 18 months without saloons, or on April 1, 1910, $1,530.90.—Boulder Creek Echo.

Poor Old Hens Had to Perish

Walter C. Palamountain discovered a good-sized nugget in the craw of a chicken which he had killed last Saturday. Last fall Mr. Palamountain dug a new sewer, scattering the sand and dirt for his chickens to scratch in. It is assumed that that is where the chicken found the piece of gold. The find created no little excitement, and for a while Saturday an epidemic of cesspool digging was threatened, and many a hen's head went under the guillotine, so that its craw might be prospected. However, no more nuggets were found.—Mayfield News.

If you were Buying Eyes?

Would you buy the best or the cheapest?

You should follow the same rule in buying glasses.

The "Ladies' Home Journal" calls cheap glasses, "Ten Cents Worth of Trouble."

A few dollars spent for glasses when they are first needed often prevents results too terrible to even think about.

My motto:

Dogs vs. Hens

The dog nuisance in Sunnyvale is becoming intolerent; it has been proven there that the bark of a dog will not cure his bite. Editor Roberts of the Standard has been doing some figuring over this matter and he finds that the cost of feeding an ordinary dog would keep six hens that, if good layers, would lay $25 worth of eggs a year, and the hens don't bark nights nor bite children and other folks.—Los Gatos Mail.

IMPLEMENTS
FOR FARM AND GARDEN

Not only a complete line of everything needed about the farm and garden—but a complete line of the BEST KIND. A farmer doesn't like to work with poor implements any more than a carpenter likes to work with poor tools. We've selected the various makes of implements with special regard to their serviceability, and we stand behind every piece that we sell.

They're all made of the very best materials, built by the best known factories in the world, and will be in good working condition when many inferior implements are consigned to the scrap-heap.

If you can't come to the store in person, send your order by mail. We'll give it careful attention.

SEEDS
Flower and vegetable seeds of all varieties. Fresh, true to name, full of vitality and life, and sure to grow. Don't waste your time with stale or inferior seed—plant the right kind — Farmer's Union kind.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where the property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the FIRST MONDAY IN MARCH AT 12 O'CLOCK M.

If you hold mortgages or trust deeds against others, send in mortgage statement early in March; so proper deductions can be made showing amount due on each mortgage or trust deed on the first Monday of March at 12 o'clock m.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

Poll Tax is now due and payable at the Assessor's office or to a deputy. After the FIRST MONDAY IN JULY 31 will be added.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.

L. A. SPITZER, Assessor
(4-30)
